Christmastime Memories . . .

It was wonderful seeing all who came to Trinity Stables' Christmas party! We had an incredible evening celebrating together. The chili cook-off was definitely a tough competition; however, Rob Schmitt won the prize with his very delicious recipe! I think he had an advantage, though, being as he was "Joseph, the father of Jesus" in our live nativity. ☺ Regardless . . . he did have a scrumptious chili! An extra big thank you goes out to all of the volunteers who filled the roles of the nativity, making it such a meaningful part of the evening! Additionally, thanks to everyone who participated in the stall decorating contest. Your creative talents made our barn look so cheerful and festive during the holidays. First place for the contest went to Kelsey McMahan! Congratulations, Kelsey! Joey's stall looked beautiful!

HORSEY HUMOR

"Mother," said a little boy after coming home from a walk. "I've seen a man who makes horses."

"Are you sure?" asked his mother.

"Yes," he replied. "He had a horse nearly finished. When I saw him, he was just nailing on his feet."
