

TRINITY STABLES NEWSLETTER

Volume 1, Issue 3

November 2009

Under Construction

Can you believe how far we've come? In addition to a new round pen, Trinity Stables recently added an area for trail patterns at the south end of the main arena. A big thanks to Jim Mead who crafted such phenomenal saddle and pad storage racks! Soon we will also be able to enjoy using our new lounge, complete with a kitchenette and restroom facilities!

Super Stars!

Congratulations to Mya Griffith, Kelsey McMahan, Taylor Richardson, and Jen Jones for all of their successes at the November 1st Blue Ribbon Horse Show! How rewarding to watch each of these girls' hard work pay off! To top it off, Taylor received high point honors from all three judges! Wow! Again, if you haven't had a chance to make it out to a show, this weekend's Fall Festival Arabian Horse Show at Westworld is the perfect chance! The following individuals from Trinity Stables will be braving the show ring: Kelsey McMahan, Cameron Rusch, Cindy Schmitt, Jan Becker, Gary Becker, Matt Thomas, Amy Thomas, Rhonda Thiel, and Denny McCoy. You can check out the show schedule at www.scottsdaleshow.com. Just click on the Fall Festival link at the top of the screen.

Saddle Club Update

Last month's Saddle Club was a blast as we enjoyed watching "The World Famous Blue-Eyed Jack" and his owner, Gary Bennett, perform various tricks!

Afterwards, everyone did an outstanding job making pillows using horse fabric. Please note that November's Saddle Club meeting will be on the third Saturday of the month, Nov. 21st. Due to the holidays, we will not meet again until January. November's Saddle Club will be a Fall Festival! We will enjoy going on a hay ride and playing many fun games! More information to come soon!

The Horse Boy

Beginning this Friday, November 6th, The Horse Boy, a movie about a boy with autism who's family will try anything to help him, will be showing at Harkins Camelview 5 Theater (next to Scottsdale Fashion Square Mall). If you go see The Horse Boy this weekend, a portion of your admission will benefit the Arizona chapter of the Autism Association.

HORSEY HUMOR

Father asked little Johnny what he'd like for his birthday. Johnny promptly replied he'd like a baby sister. His birthday came and Johnny got his baby sister.

The next year Father asked him again what he'd like for his upcoming birthday. "Dad," said Johnny, "I'd like a pony - if it's not too hard on mom."
